Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, always ready to embrace every Opportunity of acknowledging our unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's mild, wiſe and paternal Care of all your Subjects, ſince the Commencement of your Majeſty's Reign; a Period, which as it reflects Honour on the Britiſh Annals, for the many ſignal Conqueſts obtained by your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies, will not be leſs memorable for having bleſſed theſe Kingdoms with a Prince of your Majeſty's known Virtues and Accompliſhments, which can only be exceeded by the Love you bear your People, a late Inſtance of which, we have experienced in your Majeſty's happy Nuptials with ſo illuſtrious and amiable a Conſort, as our moſt gracious Queen Charlotte, a Princeſs, whoſe perſonal Endowments, as well as illuſtrious Birth, add Dignity to the moſt exalted Station. And may the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, bleſs your Majeſties with a long and happy Reign, graced with an illuſtrious Offspring, emulous of their Parents Virtues; and that our Religion and Liberties may be ſupported by a Succeſſion of Princes of your Royal Line, to the remoteſt Ages, ſhall ever be our moſt ardent Prayer.
